July 2020

Welcome to the latest edition of the Clontarf Quarterly. As the world grappled with the impacts of the COVID-19 pandemic throughout Term 2, the Foundation continued to provide an environment for the young Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander men in our programme to thrive. In this edition, we look at some of the different ways our academies adapted to the 'new normal' and how our boys developed resilience in the face of adversity.

Employment Forum Goes Digital in the NT

With most Clontarf Employment Forums postponed until later in the year due to social distancing, the team in Alice Springs decided to hold a number of mini Forums via video conference to maintain the momentum of the Year 12 boys.
